Radio Department
Indiana University
Bloomington, Indiana

BLOOMINGTON IND.

Mr. Frank Schooley
Radio Station WILL
University of Illinois
Urbana, Illinois

REGISTRATION BLANK

I plan to attend the Third Conference on Radio in Education on July 14 and 15, 1949 at Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana.

Reserve_____places ($1.25 per plate) for luncheon on July 15 _____

Registration fee ($2.00 per person; $3.00 husband and wife) _____

Total check or money order enclosed . . . . . _____

For room reservations write to Miss Mary J. Weinland, Union Building, Indiana University.

Mail to:

Conference on Radio in Education
Radio Department
Indiana University
Bloomington, Indiana

Name _____
Address _____
Title _____
Affiliation _____

Conference on Radio in Education

Open to all interested persons on payment of registration fee.

Registration

Thursday, July 14, 8:30 a.m.
(Central Daylight Time)

to

Friday, July 15, 10:00 a.m.

Memorial Union Building

Accommodations

Union Building:	$3.50 single
	$5.00–$6.00 double
Union Club:	$2.50 single
	$4.00–$4.50 double

Luncheon

For all participants of the conference in Union Building. Price, $1.25. Speaker will be a person prominent in radio or education.

Exhibits

Radio receivers
Recorders: disc, tape, wire
Phonographs and playbacks
Educational recordings and transcriptions.

The Conference serves:

School Administrators interested in radio as a public relations medium

Teachers who use radio as a teaching aid or teach radio appreciation or produce radio programs

Recreational Directors who use radio programs in their work

PTA presidents and radio chairmen interested in educational radio programs

County Agents who use radio in their promotional work

Broadcasters who want better community public service programs

Librarians interested in records and broadcasts as a library service

Audio-Visual Directors who supervise audio teaching aids

Township Trustees of schools interested in new tools for learning

ANYONE INTERESTED IN RADIO OR EDUCATION

Advance Program

Third Annual

Conference on Radio in Education

for

Teachers
Broadcasters
School Administrators
Public Service Groups

and

all interested persons

Thursday and Friday

July 14-15, 1949

Memorial Union Building
Bloomington, Indiana

Indiana University

Department of Radio
School of Education
Division of Adult Education

with cooperation of

Indiana State Department of Education

Conference on Radio in Education

Theme: Radio Serves the Public

DISCUSSION TOPICS

Communication as Art and Business in Modern Life

Using Recordings and Transcriptions in the School

Teaching Discrimination in Communication

Using the Recorder in School

School Radio Workshops

Public Service Broadcasting by Commercial Radio Stations

Script Writing and Production Clinic

SPEAKERS AND CONSULTANTS

Deane Walker, Superintendent of Education in Indiana

A representative of the Federal Communications Commission

Fred L. Gerber, Producer-Director, 'The Indiana School of the Sky'

Teachers, audio-visual directors, school administrators

Paul Seehausen, Counselor for Social Studies, State Department of Education, Division of Adult Education, Indiana University

Robert H. Lee, Program Director, Radio Department, Indiana University

Scanned from the National Association of Educational Broadcasters Records at the Wisconsin Historical Society as part of "Unlocking the Airwaves: Revitalizing an Early Public and Educational Radio Collection."

A collaboration among the Maryland Institute for Technology in the Humanities, University of Wisconsin-Madison Department of Communication Arts, and Wisconsin Historical Society.

Supported by a Humanities Collections and Reference Resources grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities

MITH MARYLAND INSTITUTE FOR TECHNOLOGY IN THE HUMANITIES

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

WISCONSIN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

WISCONSIN UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN–MADISON

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE Humanities

Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this publication/collection do not necessarily reflect those of the National Endowment for the Humanities.